Overview

On 8 June 1950 the P'yŏngyang newspapers published a manifesto which the Central Committee of the United Democratic Patriotic Front had adopted the day before proclaiming as an objective a parliament to be elected in early August from North and South Korea and to meet in Sŏul on 15 August, the fifth anniversary of the liberation of Korea from Japanese rule. [03-1] It would appear from this manifesto that Premier Kim Il Sung and his Soviet advisers expected that all of Korea would be overrun, occupied, and "elections" held in time to establish a new government of a "united" Korea in Sŏul by mid-August.
